CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMASChairman of the Board

"To us, Charlie Thomas is the prototypical owner. On the one hand he is a great fan, as is his wife Kittsie. On the other hand, when it comes to running the team, he knows that you hire professionals, you support them both emotionally and financially and you demand results from them. He has done that. Under the leadership of Charlie Thomas and Steve Patterson, this franchise has been more successful each year." (David Stern, NBA Commissioner).

Charlie Thomas is entering his 11th season as owner of the Houston Rockets (longer than any of the prior six proprietorships of the team) and he has known nothing but success. Consider the following:

"The Rockets have made the playoffs a franchise best seven of the last eight seasons, including a trip to the Finals in 1986 (the best streak ever by any of Houston's current pro franchises).

"The Rockets have had a .500 or better record a franchise best eight straight seasons—the best streak ever by any of Houston's current pro sports franchises.

"The Rockets won a franchise record 52 games in 1990-91.

"The Rockets have drawn more than 600,000 fans seven straight seasons in The Summit, that's 97 percent capacity (the Rockets averaged 7,491 fans in 1982-83).

"With Thomas' help, Houston played host to the NBA's annual All-Star Weekend in 1989; the All-Star game was played in the Astrodome before a record crowd of 44,735.

"Two consecutive "lucky" coin flips brought Ralph Sampson and perennial All-Pro center Hakeem Olajuwon to the Rockets (1983 and 1984, respectively).

"Pivotal member of the expansion committee which brought Charlotte, Miami, Minnesota and Orlando into the NBA.

The Knoxville, Tenn., native purchased the Rockets in June of 1982 for approximately $9.8 million—he has had queries to purchase the team for $100 million. Thomas received an immediate return on his initial investment. With a call of "heads" (on advice from his youngest daughter Tracy), Houston got the first of what would become back-to-back No. 1 picks and landed Ralph Sampson in the 1983 draft.

"I was familiar with basketball from the standpoint of what the league was planning on doing," Thomas said, citing the innovative salary cap and television plans. "That's what attracted me. I never thought the NBA would do this. You could never overstate the importance of those two coin flips."

Thomas was a quietly successful automobile dealer in the summer of 1982 when he purchased the team with Sidney Shlenker (who went on to own the Denver Nuggets), with encouragement from current San Antonio Spurs' owner Red McCombs. He brought in Austin developer Gary Bradley as a 20 percent owner in 1984 and sold limited partnerships in the remaining 26 percent of the club.

His management team is headed by fourth-year General Manager Steve Patterson and second-year Head Coach Rudy Tomjanovich (who has been associated with the franchise as a player, assistant coach and now head coach for 22 of the franchise's 25 seasons).

"It's like any other business that you would buy. You want to control who you hire to do the job and give them certain guidelines to operate under. But sports is different. That same guy who would buy a bank and hire another guy to run it would buy a team but want to get involved. It's your job as owner to replace management, if needed, but not do their job for them," Thomas said, explaining his ownership philosophy.

The business side of the Rockets has also seen tremendous progress considering the Rockets receive a 49 percent share of the profits of the Arena Operating Company, plus they also have the rights to sell all signage in the arena. A broadcast package second to none in pro sports completes the package with all games broadcast on KTRH Radio-740 and in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM), all road games telecast on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

Thomas attended the University of Tennessee for two years before he became a Texan in 1956 when he joined an auto agency in Corpus Christi. He purchased his first agency in 1967 in Baytown. He was the 1982 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, and was honoree at the Easter Seals Gala in October 1986. He was honored by the City of Houston at its 153rd Anniversary Dinner and Celebration.

Charlie and his wife of 40 years, Kittsie, reside in Houston. They are the parents of three daughters: Kelly, Robin (Mrs. Daniel) Klaes, and Tracy (Mrs. P. Jeffery) Everist.

E.C. ("ED") SCHMIDT IIPresident

E.C. ("Ed") Schmidt II was named the fourth president in franchise history by owner Charlie Thomas on Sept. 1, 1990. Schmidt succeeds Ray Patterson — the Rockets' Chief Executive Officer from 1972 through 1990.

Schmidt is no stranger to the Rockets' organization having served in a number of capacities since Thomas bought the team in 1982. Most recently, he has served as Vice President-Finance, Corporate Secretary and General Counsel. He has also been responsible for relations with the limited partners who were brought into the Rockets' partnership in 1984 to expand the franchise's presence in the Houston business community. He completed the renegotiation of the franchise debt with First City Texas-Houston in 1991.

Schmidt, who has been Charlie Thomas' attorney and CPA for over 10 years, has a wide range of business experience, including representing Thomas' business interests in the Caribbean and Far East in the early 1980s. He is a former director of South Main Bank, First Texas Savings, Gibraltar Savings and a number of other businesses operated by Thomas. He also was a tax accountant for Arthur Andersen & Co., from 1975 to 1979.

The 45-year-old Schmidt has been in Houston since 1975. He was born at Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana. Schmidt earned his BBA from the University of Texas in 1969, his JD from UT in 1976 and his CPA certificate in 1977.

STEVE PATTERSON

General Manager

Steve Patterson became the Houston Rockets' fourth General Manager on Sept. 11, 1989. Patterson, 35, is the youngest GM in the NBA.

When Patterson took over the average age of the Rockets' players was 28—it's now 25.9. The additions he has made to the roster took the Rockets from a 41-41 team in 1989-90 to a franchise-record 52-30 in 1990-91. Patterson's acquisitions:

*Dave Jamerson and Carl Herrera (turned one 1990 draft pick, Alec Kessler, into two in draft-day trade with Miami).

*Vernon Maxwell (for cash from San Antonio)—he set the NBA record for 3-PTers made in 1990-91 (172), most 3-PTers made in consecutive seasons (334, 1990-92) and most 3-PTers made in one month (50, March 1992).

*Kenny Smith (acquired in trade with Atlanta for Tim McCormick and John Lucas)—finished third in 1990-91 NBA Most Improved Player balloting; turned in numbers for a Rockets' guard only previously reached by Calvin Murphy.

The above mentioned group has been responsible for Houston setting or equalling 77 franchise records the last two seasons—including best overall record, longest winning streak, best road record and best record for one month. They also continued the Rockets' franchise-record streak of compiling a .500 or better record eight straight seasons, which has enabled the continuation of another franchise record—seven straight seasons of drawing 600,000+ fans (includes exhibitions and playoffs).

Steve and his father (Ray) became the first father-son team to run an NBA franchise in 1989-90. Ray Patterson was President and General Manager of the Rockets from May 1, 1972 until Steve's appointment as GM in September 1989. Ray Patterson, who earned NBA Executive of the Year honors in 1976-77 and is the only GM in league history to lead two different franchises to the NBA Finals (Milwaukee 1971, Houston 1981 and 1986), retired Aug. 31, 1990.

Patterson is beginning his ninth fulltime season with the Rockets, having served as Counsel to the President (1984-89). Patterson, who has been involved in most every aspect of the club, is responsible for all business aspects of the franchise, including the team's marketing and merchandising, negotiation of player contracts, working with the NBA's legal department, negotiations for lease agreements, plus negotiating television and cable contracts (such as the six-year contract with Home Sports Entertainment signed in 1989), and doing all the salary cap permutations for the trades made in the last seven years.

Upon earning his Law Degree from the University of Texas (1984), he became Counsel to the President for the Rockets and was put in charge of marketing. He took over the business operations in 1986.

Upon coming to the Rockets on a fulltime basis, Patterson installed a computer network in the front office that handles all the team's ticketing operations as well as word processing, accounting, scouting and salary cap information. Patterson helped coordinate the Rockets' successful bid for the 1989 NBA All-Star game played in the Astrodome (Feb. 12, 1989). Under Patterson's direction the Rockets have developed a five-state, 19-station radio network anchored by the 50,000-watt flagship KTRH (740 AM). The Rockets became one of three teams (now four) to broadcast all of its games in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM) in 1988-89.

Patterson graduated from Dulles High School (Stafford, TX) in May of 1975, where he started on the basketball team (ranked fifth in Texas) his senior year. Patterson, born Sept. 21, 1957 in Beaver Dam, Wis., then attended the University of Texas where he graduated with honors, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing in December, 1980. He then attended UT's Law School where he graduated in 1984, and was admitted to the Texas Bar, Nov. 2, 1984. He is married (wife Yasmin), and they have a son (Austin).

ROCKETS ON THE AIR

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on the Rockets' 19-station radio network, with KTRH-740 AM serving as the flagship station; all the games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ-1320 AM. The Rockets distribute their radio broadcasts on satellite via the Texas State Network, which also makes it possible to send special programming to all of the affiliates which cover a five-state area including Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

All road games are telecast by KTXH TV-20 (42 this season) and all home games (40 this season) will be cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE). As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets are scheduled for one appearances on TNT (Nov. 6 vs Seattle in Yokohama, Japan). A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets" (hosted by Jim Foley) is heard one hour before tipoff on weekend games, featuring GM Steve Patterson, along with players and coaches from around the NBA. Head Coach Rudy Tomjanovich can be heard weekly on KTRH Radio (740 AM). Rockets' Tipoff can be viewed weekly on KHTV-39.

THE RADIO TEAM

Gene Peterson, who is entering his 18th season as Voice of the Rockets, will be joined on all broadcasts for a sixth straight year by Rockets' Director of Communications, Jim Foley.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and has broadcast 1,394 regular season and 95 playoff games without a miss. The Albert Lea, MN, native studied broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, WI. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM; KCMO, Kansas City, MO; and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood—they have two sons, Todd, 29, and Paul, 20, plus one daughter, Jennifer, 26. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Tournament has borne his name for the last six years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley, who is beginning his 24th NBA season (20 Houston, 3 Milwaukee), was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations for 15 years after serving in that position three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. He was promoted to Director of Communications in August, 1987. The Marquette University graduate comes from LaSalle, IL. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. He was named Sports Information Director in 1965 at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities, including Houston's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade—he was the Grand Marshall in 1989. He is also an avid golfer. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston.

Rolando Becerra (play-by-play) and Alex Lopez-Negrete (color) are in their fifth season of describing Rockets' action in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). The 43-year-old Becerra has been in the radio business 23 years, starting in Miami on WQBA as a sports reporter. He has been in Houston the last 14 years, and has been KXYZ's News/Sports Director since 1983. Since 1986 Becerra has been the Spanish voice of the Houston Astros. Becerra and his wife Jenny reside in Pasadena—they have one daughter (Barbara) and two sons (Jason, Jaron).

Lopez-Negrete, who was born in Houston, raised and educated in Mexico City, is president of Lopez-Negrete Communications. Alex started his professional career in the U.S. by representing the Grupo Novedades de publicaciones (the largest publishing conglomerate in Mexico) in the Southwest. He also served as international/Mexico marketing counsel for some of Houston's largest advertising agencies, real estate developers and retailers before opening his own business. Alex and his wife Cathy reside in Missouri City—they have one daughter (Michelle) and son (Patrick).

THE TV TEAM

Bill Worrell and Calvin Murphy will team up to describe all the Rockets' action in 1992-93. Worrell will handle all play-by-play duties and Murphy will be the color commentator on all telecasts; with Bruce Gietzen handling anchor chores in the studio on KTXH.

Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at Houston's KRPC-TV 2 in 1970, and was that station's Sports Director from 1974 through 1980. He has been HSE's Sports Director since it began operation in 1982. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros, and Oilers—plus college football and basketball. He has been involved with Rockets' telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the last seven seasons after having done play-by-play on Rockets' telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

This is Murphy's third year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20, and his second on HSE. He handled interviews at halftime and postgame for HSE, 1988-90. He also handles community relations work (for further info, see his biography on page 21).

COACHES

RUDY TOMJANOVICHHead Coach

Wife: Sophie

Daughters: Nicole (19), Melissa (16); Son: Rudy III (9)

Birth Date: Nov. 24, 1948 at Hamtramck, MI

High School: Hamtramck

College: Michigan '70

Drafted by San Diego Rockets, first round, 1970 (2nd pick overall)

NBA Career: 1970-81 with Rockets

NBA All-Star: 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977, 1979 (starter)

Retired as a player Oct. 2, 1981; Number (#45) was retired on Jan. 28, 1982

Rockets' scout 1981-83; Rockets' assistant coach 1983-92

1992-93 will be the 26th season for the Rockets' franchise, and the 23rd season Rudy Tomjanovich has been a Rocket—the first time as head coach. Rudy T., who served as interim head coach for the final 30 games of the 1991-92 season and compiled a 16-14 record, was named the ninth coach in franchise history on May 20, 1992.

Tomjanovich, the No. 2 selection in the 1970 draft (Bob Lanier was No. 1), spent his entire 11-season NBA career with the Rockets. He retired Oct. 2, 1981 and spent the next two seasons as a scout. He was named an assistant coach in 1983 and served in that capacity until February 1992.

"I will put all my energies into turning this team around," Tomjanovich said. "I have been committed to this team for a long time on many levels. To become head coach after 22 years with this organization....I consider it a real honor. I would like to thank Charlie Thomas for having the confidence in me. I believe wholeheartedly I can do well in this job."

Rudy T. showed a brief glimpse of what to expect over his first 30 games.

The five-time NBA All-Star forward was named interim head coach on Feb. 18, 1992 and the Rockets responded with an 11-4 record—the best start for any coach in franchise history. Houston shot .488 from the field, .379 from 3-PT range and .756 from the line over his 30-game season-ending stint as compared to .468 FG, .315 3-PT and .728 FT before. The Rockets finished 10th in the NBA in FG percentage after ranking 14th on Feb. 18; they finished 8th in 3-PT percentage after ranking 13th on Feb. 18. Houston averaged 26.4 assists per game under Rudy T., as compared to 24.4 before.

"Rudy always was a disciplined player," Rockets' GM Steve Patterson said. "I think there was a difference in the tone of the basketball club after he took over. Rudy showed a great grasp of the Rockets, and he has a vision of what he wants done."

Tomjanovich is the third leading scorer in franchise history with 13,383 points (17.4 per game), trailing Calvin Murphy and Hakeem Olajuwon. He is fourth on the Rockets' all-time rebounding list with 6,198 (8.1 per game) behind Olajuwon, Moses Malone and Elvin Hayes. He averaged better than 20 points in four seasons with a high of 24.5 in 1973-74. He shot .501 from the field, and .784 from the line over the course of his playing career. He was third in FG percentage in the NBA twice (1973-75). Tomjanovich's first game as head coach was Feb. 20, 1992 vs Philadelphia, a 110-101 win in The Summit. The franchise's first game as the Houston Rockets was Oct. 14, 1971 in the Astrodome—vs Philadelphia (a 105-94 loss)—starting at forward for Houston was Rudy T., who had 28 points and 17 rebounds.

Only two numbers have been retired in the franchise's history, Murphy (23) and Tomjanovich (45).

Murphy and Tomjanovich proved to be one of the most durable and reliable scoring duos in NBA history. The pair averaged 36.3 points, scoring a total of 30,361 points over the 11 seasons they were teammates. Using the criteria of playing together at least 10 seasons on the same team, Calvin and Rudy produced the sixth best average all-time (Jerry West and Elgin Baylor 55.0, Larry Bird and Kevin McHale 43.0, Bird and Robert Parish 41.8, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Earvin Johnson 40.1, Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman 37.8 rank ahead of the Rockets' duo). See page 274 for the complete chart.

Here's a capsule look at some of Tomjanovich's better seasons with the Rockets:

CARROLL DAWSONAssistant Coach

"CD" begins his 13th season with the Rockets, working with his fourth head coach (Del Harris 1980-83, Bill Fitch 1983-88, Don Chaney 1988-92). Noted for his work with the forwards and centers, the Rockets have finished among the Top 5 in rebounding in the NBA eight of the last 12 seasons. A "True Texan", Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, TX, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. He was inducted into the Paris Hall of Fame in 1991. Dawson earned All-Southwest Conference honors at Baylor his senior season (1960) when he averaged 16.4 points, and 8.8 rebounds. Dawson, who led Bill Henderson's Baylor Bears in scoring and rebounding both seasons, averaged 13.3 points and 7.3 rebounds his junior year. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1973 and remained for 3 1/2 seasons. Dallas Cowboys' executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team, but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. A bachelor, Dawson resides in Houston and ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession. A good example of his golfing prowess: a scratch golfer at his best, he scored a 2 on a 555-yard par-5 at Wing Pointe Golf Course in Salt Lake City in July....Dawson hit his tee shot better than 300 yards, then knocked in a 4-iron from 210 yards out....the kicker, he was playing with Rudy Tomjanovich; Tomjanovich birdied the hole and with the stroke he was receiving from Dawson because of their difference in handicap, Tomjanovich scored a net eagle—and still lost the hole.

BILL BERRY*Assistant Coach

Starting first full season with Rockets. He was hired Feb. 23, 1992. Berry, who had been scouting college and NBA games for the Rockets in 1991-92, was an assistant coach and scout for the Sacramento Kings two seasons (1989-91). Prior to that he was head coach at San Jose State (1979-89), the No. 1 assistant coach at Michigan State (1977-79), an assistant coach at Cal-Berkeley (1972-77), head coach at Cosumnes River Junior College (1970-72), head coach at Highlands High School (Sacramento, 1966-69). He lettered three seasons at Michigan State (1961-64, the head coach was Fordy Anderson, and one of Berry's teammates was Pete Gent who later starred for the Dallas Cowboys) where he earned his master's degree in physical education in 1969. Berry compiled the second highest win total in San Jose State history as he had a 142-144 record in 10 seasons. He turned the Spartans' program around immediately as he guided them to a 17-12 record in his first season (they were 7-20 in 1978-79), winning the Big West Conference Tournament and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans went 21-9 his second season, making it to the conference championship game, and an NIT berth. San Jose State has been to postseason action only three times (NCAA or NIT) and Berry led them there twice. He was Jud Heathcote's top aide when the Michigan State Spartans won two Big Ten championships and the NCAA championship (1979) behind the brilliant play of Earvin Johnson, Greg Kelsey and Jay Vincent. Berry, born June 19, 1942, is married (wife Clarice) and they have a daughter (Pam).

JOHN KILLILEAAssistant Coach/Player Personnel

Killilea, who joined the Rockets Aug. 1, 1988, brings 18 years of NBA experience into his job of scouting the college and pro teams (four with the Rockets). Killilea was an assistant coach for Boston, Milwaukee and New Jersey (1971-85); he retired after the 1984-85 season for one year and then returned as head coach of the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers the last two seasons. Boston won five division titles and two NBA championships in Killilea's six seasons (1974, 1976 championships). He was responsible for recommending Larry Bird to Red Auerbach (Killilea had seen Bird play as a sophomore at Indiana State). Then he joined Milwaukee's Don Nelson as assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel from 1977-78 to 1982-83—the Bucks won four division championships in his last four seasons. Then he spent two seasons with New Jersey (Stan Albeck was the head coach)—in 1984 the Nets eliminated the defending NBA champion Philadelphia 76ers from the playoffs. Prior to joining the Celtics Killilea coached 18 years at five high schools in Maine and Massachusetts, compiling a 325-85 record (.793). His teams won six state championships in nine visits to the playoffs. He was voted Maine coach of the year (1957), and is a member of both the Maine Hall of Fame (1975) and Massachusetts Basketball Hall of Fame (1976). During his last two years as a high school coach he also found time to do some scouting on a parttime basis for Milwaukee Bucks' coach Larry Costello. A 1952 Boston University graduate, Killilea also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Salem (MA) State. Recognized as one of the game's premier clinicians, he has conducted camps and coaching sessions throughout the world the last 20 years. He and his wife Eli reside in Brookfield, WI.

RAY MELCHIORRETrainer/Traveling Secretary

Melchiorre is in his sixth season with the Rockets, his 22nd in professional basketball after becoming only the second trainer/traveling secretary in Houston Rockets' history in August 1987. He succeeded Dick Vandervoort who passed away July 4, 1987 while at his farm in Maryland. Prior to joining Houston, Melchiorre spent eight seasons with Boston, six with the Buffalo Braves and two with the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA). His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle strains and related injuries over his tenure with Boston. He was only the fifth trainer in the 43-year history of the Celtics. The Philadelphia native is a 1970 graduate of Bethel (McKenzie, TN) College, where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years. Melchiorre is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and licensed Texas Athletic Trainer Association. He has taught athletic injury courses at the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State College. During the summer Ray continues his work and stays busy with camps throughout the United States—plus making speaking appearances. Melchiorre was the East's trainer for the 1983 NBA All-Star game, and was the host trainer for the 1989 game in Houston. Ray and his wife Liz reside in Houston. They have a son, Michael and two daughters, Kathy and Lisa.

CALVIN MURPHYSpecial Assignments Coach/Community Relations

The "Greatest Rocket of Them All" returned Feb. 3, 1989 as the team's shooting coach and to work in community relations. He is in his third year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20's road telecasts of Rockets games, plus he is in his second season as color commentator for home games on HSE. Calvin Murphy, the franchise's all-time leading scorer and one of two Rockets to have his number retired (former teammate and fellow coach Rudy Tomjanovich is the other) gives speeches and clinics while wearing his community relations hat. He also conducts basketball clinics worldwide for the NBA. Murphy scored 17,949 points in 1,002 games—all with Houston (1970-83). The former Niagara All-America still holds the NBA record for most consecutive free throws made (78, Dec. 27, 1980 - Feb. 28, 1981), and highest FT percentage in one season (.958, 206-215, 1980-81). Murphy led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1981, 1983), and finished among the Top Five nine other times—including second on eight occasions. Murphy (5) and Rick Barry (7) are the only two players in league history to have shot .900 or better from the line in five or more seasons. The Norwalk, Conn., native is one of only two Rockets to have ranked among the Top 10 in four different statistical categories in one season (Hakeem Olajuwon 1987-90 is the other). He still owns the Rockets' single-game scoring record of 57 points vs New Jersey on March 18, 1978—he was 24-40 from the field, 9-12 from the line. Murphy was named to the NBA All-Rookie team in 1971 after being drafted by the Rockets in the second round (18th pick overall). His greatest single season was 1977-78 when he averaged 25.6 points in 76 games. He averaged better than 20 points a game in five seasons (three consecutive, 1978-80). Murphy averaged in double figures every season he played—professionally, in college and high school. Calvin averaged 33.1 points in 77 games for Niagara—he averaged 48.9 points in 19 freshman games in 1966-67. Murphy is married (wife Vernetta) and they have two daughters (Tiffani, Tracie) and one son (Calvin Jr.).

JOE ASH*Scout

He worked with other teams on a free-lance basis in 1991-92, and also has extensive experience scouting on the collegiate level. Ash graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1961 and was a high school basketball coach for 13 years in Nebraska, Iowa and New Jersey. Ash, who has had his own Division I collegiate scouting service, was an assistant coach for seven seasons with William Paterson (NJ) State College. He attended Fair Park High School in Shreveport, LA, (1972-76) where he lettered in basketball, baseball and track (long jump, triple jump). Barr is also a vice-president for a vitamin-supplement company. He is married (wife Valerie), and they have a daughter (Kristy).

JIM BOYLENVideo Coordinator

Boylen is in his first season with the Rockets. His main responsibilities will be preparing tapes of Rockets, other NBA and college games through the use of the Lexicon Computer System for the coaching staff. Boylen, 27, was an assistant coach at Michigan State under Jud Heathcote the last five seasons (assistant coach Bill Berry was a Heathcote assistant 1977-79). Boylen was responsible for scouting, on-campus recruiting, game preparation and served as the computer video coordinator. Boylen's father (Fred) was a middle linebacker and guard for Michigan State's football team 1957-60. The Grand Rapids, MI, native joined the Spartans after a brilliant career at the University of Maine (his coach was Tom Chappelle) where he was the basketball team's captain his junior and senior seasons. Boylen, a guard, averaged 21 points per game in 1986-87, earning first team All-North Atlantic Conference honors. He finished runner-up in the Player of the Year voting to Northeastern's Reggie Lewis (now of the Boston Celtics). Boylen earned a bachelor's degree in business from Maine in 1987, and his Master's in athletic administration from MSU in 1992.

DAVID NORDSTROM*Equipment Manager

"Darkhorse" is starting his 16th season with the Rockets—only Rudy Tomjanovich (23), Jim Foley (20), Ray Patterson (18), Calvin Murphy (18) and Gene Peterson (18) have had longer tenures with the franchise. The Beaumont native (born Dec. 27, 1957) graduated from St. Thomas High School in Houston in 1976 and hired by the Rockets in 1977. DH, who played hockey from 1970-82 in the Houston Youth Hockey Organization and Houston Hockey Association, started his "pro" career by selling programs at Houston Aeros games (1972-73). Then he worked as a "stick boy" (1973-76) and assistant equipment manager for the Aeros (1976-78). From 1978-80 he was also the equipment manager for The Summit Soccer (MISL) team. As if he didn't have enough to keep him busy, he also worked as a cameraman and AD for John Crowe TV Productions during the summer (1978-85). DH is married (wife Cristy, who is the laboratory manager at Heights Hospital).

ED BERNHOLZ*Tape Coordinator

Coach Ed is in his 10th season as the Rockets' volunteer tape coordinator. Bernholz is responsible for the recording of all Rockets' and upcoming opponents' games. The New York City native (born April 8, 1920) graduated from Columbia University in 1941 with a degree in business administration. He was a Naval aviator in World War II (Nov. 1941 - Nov. 1945)—flying anti-submarine patrols for three years, and testing new aircraft his final year. Worked as outside salesman in Michigan, Florida and North Carolina until 1952 when he was transferred to Dallas as Southwest District Manager for a candy company. Spent 10 years in Dallas before being sent to Houston in 1962. Retired in October 1983, and then joined Rockets as film coach under Bill Fitch.

HOME: 592,790 (14,458) , ROAD: 644,456 (15,718)

1991-92 MONTH-BY-MONTH

NOVEMBER (9-4)

Injuries forced Head Coach Don Chaney to use five different starting lineups, but the Rockets still produced their best November since 1985 when they finished 11-4....the only time the Rockets have had a better record after 13 games was in 1984-85 and 1985-86 (10-3)...Chaney used two different starters at small forward, three different starters at center, two different starters at point guard....Otis Thorpe and Vernon Maxwell were the only two Rockets who played and started every game....despite all the combinations, the defense was brilliant over the first part of the month—Houston didn't allow 100 points in regulation in the first nine games; since the advent of the 24-second clock in 1954-55 only Philadelphia (16) in 1954-55 and Portland (10) in 1979-80 have had a better streak to start the season....toward the end of the month the injuries started to take their toll as Houston went without the services of centers Hakeem Olajuwon (atrial fibrillation) and Larry Smith (medial collateral ligament, left knee)....Olajuwon averaged 21.7 points, 14.0 rebounds, 3.1 blocks in his nine games....Vernon Maxwell averaged 19.8 points, Thorpe 17.8 points and 10.8 rebounds.

DECEMBER (7-9)

The Rockets literally were on a roller-coaster ride in December....this broke a string of four straight months Houston had a winning record (the last time the Rockets had a losing record in one month was January 1991, 7-8)....the Rockets were 2-5 in The Summit, 5-4 on the road in December....this is the fifth time out of the last seven months Houston has had a .500 or better road record....this is the first time since December 1986 the Rockets have suffered a losing record in one month in The Summit....the Rockets started December with a four-game losing streak, then won six of seven including wins at Portland (Dec. 10) and Golden State (Dec. 12)—which propelled them back into first place, and finished the month losing four of five....the highlight of the month came Dec. 10 at Portland and Dec. 12 at Golden State....the Rockets trailed Portland by 12 points with 4:12 remaining in the game (97-85), only to outscore the Blazers 23-9 down the stretch to pull the win out....two nights later Hakeem Olajuwon erupted for 33 points and 23 rebounds in leading Houston to a 99-96 win at Golden State—this was the first time the Warriors were held to less than 100 points in 1991-92...Olajuwon was Houston's leading scorer (21.1) and rebounder (12.1) in December—that's in 11 games (he came off the injured list on Dec. 7 vs Utah)....Otis Thorpe averaged 15.9 points and 9.9 rebounds, while shooting .566 (98-173) from the field; Kenny Smith averaged 15.8 points and 7.2 assists, while shooting .503 (95-189) and .917 (55-60) from the line....Vernon Maxwell contributed 16.1 points per game....the Rockets were out-scored 102.6-97.8, and out-rebounded 44.4-41.6....Houston shot .697 (281-403) from the line and averaged 16.9 turnovers in December—the opposition shot .777 (317-408) from the line and averaged 13.6 turnovers.

JANUARY (8-6)

The Rockets went 8-6 in January, the 17th time out of the last 21 months they had a .500 or better record—the fifth time out of the last six they have had a winning record....Houston started 1992 slowly, but finished the month by winning seven of its last 10 games (the three losses were to division leaders Utah, Chicago and Golden State)....among the highlights of the month were Otis Thorpe being named to the All-Star team for the first time and Hakeem Olajuwon being selected for the seventh time in eight seasons; Thorpe becoming the 10th player in league history to play in 500 consecutive games (Jan. 23 vs LA Clippers); Olajuwon becoming the 20th player in league history to grab 7,000 rebounds in eight seasons or less...Olajuwon averaged 21.7 points, 12.7 rebounds and 4.8 blocks; Thorpe averaged 18.9 points, 11.6 rebounds and 4.2 assists, while shooting .580 (105-181) from the field.

FEBRUARY (6-8)

Houston went 6-8, but finished strong by winning four of the last five games....highlights of the month—Hakeem Olajuwon became the sixth player in recorded NBA history to block 2,000 shots when he stuffed a David Robinson shot on Feb. 23 in The Summit; Olajuwon made his seventh appearance in the NBA All-Star game, Otis Thorpe his first, and the Rockets overcame a 20-point deficit to Golden State to earn a buzzer-beating 118-116 win on Feb. 26 (the Warriors had an eight-game winning streak and the Western Conference's best record coming into the game)....Rudy Tomjanovich was named interim head coach on Feb. 18 after Don Chaney was relieved of his duties earlier in the day (the Rockets were 26-26 under the 1991 NBA Coach of the Year)....four Rockets averaged better than 16 points led by Olajuwon (22.1)—he also averaged 10.9 rebounds and 4.6 blocks....Thorpe averaged 16.7 points and 11.5 rebounds; Vernon Maxwell 16.7 points; Kenny Smith 16.0 points and 7.5 assists.

MARCH (7-9)

Houston started the month by winning seven of its first 10 games, but finished with a season-long six-game losing streak which meant a losing March record for the first time since 1987 (7-11)...the Rockets had gone 25-6 in March during the previous two seasons (14-1 in 1991, 11-5 in 1990)....Houston was 37-30 after a 100-92 win over the LA Clippers and in sixth place in the Western Conference on March 17....then the "booster" literally fell off Houston's rocket....All-Star center Hakeem Olajuwon complained of soreness in his left hamstring after the Clippers' game, didn't suit up for the next two, and was suspended on March 23 by the Rockets for "failure to render his services as provided in his contract."....the suspension lasted three more games and he returned to action March 31 vs the Lakers....the Rockets lost all six games....Olajuwon was the leading scorer for the month, 19.9 and rebounder, 11.8 in 11 games....Vernon Maxwell averaged 17.9 points and made 50 3-PTers (121 attempts, .413) to become the first in NBA history to make 50 3-PTers in one month...Otis Thorpe averaged 17.2 points, 9.3 rebounds, while shooting a team-high .651 (110-169) FG.

APRIL (5-4)

Houston won the month's first four games, then lost four of the last (twice to Dallas) five to miss the playoffs for the first time since 1983-84....it also marked the first time since the 1982-83 season a team failed to make the playoffs with a winning record (Houston finished 42-40 overall)....the Rockets went into the final weekend needing to beat either Dallas or Phoenix, or see the Lakers lose to either Portland or the Clippers to earn the eighth and final Western Conference playoff berth....the Rockets lost 109-106 at Dallas on April 17; the Lakers won at Portland on April 18; the Rockets lost 100-97 to Phoenix in The Summit and then had to watch LA beat the Clippers on a jumper with 4.5 seconds left in over-time....Hakeem Olajuwon was Houston's leading scorer (23.1) and rebounder (11.2); Otis Thorpe averaged 18.0 points and 10.0 rebounds while shooting .641 (59-92) from the field (Olajuwon shot .540, 81-150)....Sleepy Floyd averaged 16.3 points, while shooting .487 (55-113) from the field, .375 (12-32) from 3-PT range and .862 (25-29) from the line....the Rockets out-scored the opposition 106.7-104.8, and out-rebounded them 44.3-43.6 in April....Houston shot .486 (372-765) from the field, the opponents .450 (369-820).

HOUSTON ROCKETS' NOTES

THE 1991-92 SEASON

Houston finished 42-40 marking the eighth straight season it has posted a .500 or better record, the seventh time out of the last eight seasons it has had a winning record....unfortunately, the Rockets didn't make the playoffs for the first time since 1984.....Houston is the first NBA team to have a winning record and not make the playoffs since 1982-83 (Kansas City 45-37 and Washington 42-40).....27 franchise records were set or tied (as compared to 63 in 1990-91), Hakeem Olajuwon and Otis Thorpe were selected to play in the NBA's annual All-Star game, while Rudy Tomjanovich guided the Rockets to a 16-14 finish after replacing Don Chaney as head coach on Feb. 18.

LAST DAY

The Rockets went into the last day of the season with a chance to earn the eighth and final Western Conference playoff berth—all they needed was a win over Phoenix....this marked the second time in three seasons Houston has gone into the final day of the regular-season trying to make the playoffs (Golden State defeated Seattle, then Houston responded with a win over Utah on the last day of the 1989-90 season to gain the eighth spot)....Phoenix won 100-97, but Houston still had a chance if the Clippers beat the Lakers later that night—but a little past midnight Sedale Threatt sank a short-jumper with 4.5 seconds remaining in overtime to give the Lakers a one-point win and the eighth playoff spot.

STREAKY

Houston's season could best be described as one of streaks.....the Rockets won eight of their first 10 games, then went 3-7, 5-2, 1-5, 8-4, 1-6, 11-4, 0-6, 4-0, 1-4....Houston was 8-2 and in first place in the Midwest Division, equalling the best start in franchise history, after defeating Minnesota 106-102 in The Summit on Nov. 21....the Rockets were already playing without Hakeem Olajuwon who had suffered an episode of atrial fibrillation after their Nov. 19 win over New York (he would miss seven games)....the next game (Nov. 23 at Minnesota) saw Houston lose Larry Smith to injury (for 34 games)....Smith had filled in brilliantly for Olajuwon in 1990-91 (the Rockets went 15-10)....without their top two centers the Rockets went into a 3-7 tailspin that dropped them into third place....Houston regrouped to win four straight, and five of its next seven to climb back into the Midwest race—but the Rockets then lost five of the next six games (four of the losses came on the road)....Houston regrouped once again to go 8-4, but a pair of road losses to Boston and New York before the All-Star break and another pair of road losses at Seattle and LA Clippers offset the latest success streak....the Rockets would lose six of seven games, the last loss a 124-122 overtime verdict to Minnesota in The Summit (Houston had a 23-point second-half lead) on Feb. 17....on Feb. 18 Rudy Tomjanovich was named interim head coach and the Rockets went on an 11-4 tear (the best start ever by a Rockets' head coach)....Houston had climbed into the sixth playoff spot in the Western Conference after a 100-92 win over the Clippers....but then came the Olajuwon hamstring incident which saw the Rockets lose a season-high six straight and put them in a difficult spot to make the playoffs....then, with Hakeem's return the Rockets would win five of their first six games in April, needing only one win in the final three games to gain the playoff berth....Houston's last win was April 14 vs Portland—it would finish the season with road losses to Utah and Dallas, and a home game with Phoenix.

THREE-POINT TIME

The Rockets (329, a franchise record) and Portland (325) are the first teams in NBA history to make 300+ 3-PTers in consecutive seasons (Houston made 316 in 1990-91, Portland 341)....Houston was third in 3-PTers made with 325 (Milwaukee had 371, Indiana 333)....Houston finished eighth in the NBA in 3-PT percentage after ranking 13th on Feb. 18, shooting a franchise-record .343 (the previous best was .320 in 1990-91)....the Rockets shot .379 (162-428) over the last 30 games from 3-PT range....the Rockets were the only team in the league with three players ranked among the Top 30....Kenny Smith 13th (.394, 54-137), Matt Bullard 17th (.386, 64-166) and Vernon Maxwell is 29th (a career-high .342, 162-473)....Smith and Bullard each bettered Mike Dunleavy's franchise record of .384 set in 1981-82....Maxwell, who established the NBA record for most 3-PTers made in one season (172, 1990-91), set another NBA standard when he connected on 50 of 121 (.413) 3-PTers in 16 games during March—this is the first time a player has made 50 3-PTers in one month (Michael Adams made 49 during March 1988)....Maxwell also owns the league standard for most 3-PTers made in consecutive seasons, 334 (Adams made 325, 1988-90)....Maxwell is the fourth in NBA history to lead the league in 3-PTers made in consecutive seasons (Darrell Griffith 1983-85, Bird 1985-87, Adams 1988-90).

OVERTIME

Houston was 3-3 in overtime in 1991-92—the third time out of the last four seasons they have played six overtimes....the last time Houston has played 7 or more overtimes was in 1979-80 (5-3)....the Rockets were 1-3 in single overtime games, 2-0 in double overtimes in 1991-92.

RUDY T.

Rudy Tomjanovich, the ninth coach in Rockets' history, is the first to win 11 of his first 15 games....the Rockets, who compiled a 16-14 record under Rudy T., shot .488 from the field, .379 from 3-PT range and .756 from the line over 30 games (as compared to .468, .315 and .728 before)....the Rockets finished 10th in the NBA in FG percentage (they were 14th on Feb. 18); 8th in 3-PT percentage (were 13th on Feb. 18)....Houston was out-scored by the opposition 104.0-104.2 (it was 100.9-103.5 before Feb. 18)....the Rockets averaged 26.4 assists per game, compared to 24.4 before.....Hakeem Olajuwon was the leading scorer, averaging 21.2 points (11.1 rebounds)....Vernon Maxwell averaged 16.3 points, while shooting .382 (83-217) from 3-PT range....Kenny Smith averaged 14.2 points and 7.1 assists, while shooting .495 (153-309) from the field including .422 (27-64) from 3-PT range....Otis Thorpe averaged 16.8 points and 9.6 rebounds while shooting a team-high .632 from the field (194-307) over the last 30 games....Sleepy Floyd averaged 10.6 points, while shooting .455 (120-264) from the field, including .345 (19-55) from 3-PT range.....Houston was 11-5 at home after Rudy T. took over.

INJURY REPORT

Matt Bullard was placed on the injured list April 17 after suffering a severe contusion (bruise) to his left shoulder during first-half action at Utah on April 15....he missed the last two games of the regular-season....John Turner, who was placed on the injured list March 31 after suffering a sprained left wrist at Seattle(March 24), was activated on April 17—he missed eight games....Carl Herrera (who missed the first five games because of a strained low back, then four more Dec. 10-17 for the same reason) was placed on the injured list Feb. 4 after suffering a contusion to his left heel (he first suffered the injury Jan. 30 vs Chicago)—he missed 24 games.....Herrera missed two more games (April 14-15) after suffering from the flu....Larry Smith (torn medial collateral ligament left knee) missed 34 games, Olajuwon missed 7 games (atrial fibrillation)....Buck Johnson missed the first two games because of a strained right hamstring....Vernon Maxwell missed the Jan. 2 game vs Detroit after suffering a fractured middle left finger at Milwaukee, Dec. 29....the Rockets missed 89 player games due to injuries, the eighth lowest total in the NBA in 1991-92 (Utah lost the fewest games to injuries, 14; Washington the most, 281).

BIG COMEBACKS

The Feb. 26 come-from-behind win against Golden State was the fifth largest in franchise history (20 points)....it was the largest since April 16, 1989 at Dallas when the Rockets overcame a 22-point deficit to win 114-112 in overtime on a 15-footer by Otis Thorpe....the other 20-point come-back wins: 25 at Sacramento, Nov. 12, 1987 (116-114); 23 vs Portland, Jan. 22, 1977 (Rudy Tomjanovich made 2 FGs in closing seconds to earn win); 21 vs San Antonio, March 8, 1986 (126-117)....the Rockets overcame a 12-point deficit with 4:12 left to win at Portland on Dec. 10, 1991, 108-106.

THE SUMMIT

The Houston Rockets have called The Summit home since the building first opened in 1975. The Summit, which seats 16,279 for Rockets' games and better than 17,000 for other events, is located on a seven-acre site north of the Southwest Freeway, between Edloe and Timmons streets—approximately four miles from downtown.

Houston has compiled a 464-233 (.666) record in 17 seasons (25-21 in the playoffs) since the first game was played on Nov. 2, 1975 vs Milwaukee—a 104-89 Houston win. The Rockets have sold out 168 of the last 273 home dates including exhibitions and playoffs. Houston has drawn better than 600,000 for seven of eight seasons (including playoffs), averaging 16,000 per game. The Rockets top season was 1987-88 when they sold out every exhibition, regular-season and playoff game.

The Rockets will call The Summit home through the year 2,003 after signing a seven-year extension on their lease in October 1988. The Rockets also have exclusive control of the signage in the arena, television production of Rockets' games, program advertising and sales.

The site was donated to the City of Houston by Greenway Plaza. Kenneth Schnitzer, Chairman of the Board. Construction of The Summit began in late 1973 following approval by the Houston City Council in October that year. Construction was financed by the sale of $18 million of first mortgage revenue bonds. Under terms of a 30-year contract with the city, the operator of The Summit is the Arena Operating Company, Mike McGee, president.

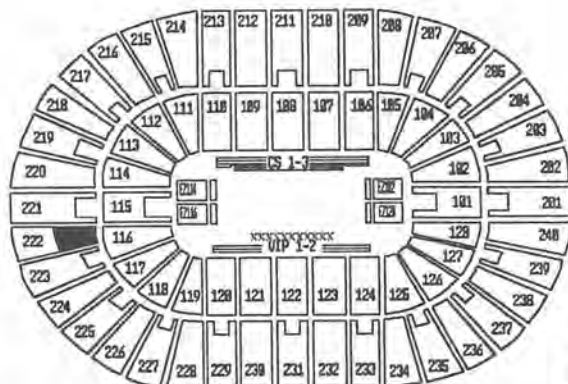

The building, 427-feet long by 312-feet wide, offers unobstructed viewing from seats on two major levels and from 20 plush private Summit suites located above the upper promenade level. Maximum distance of any spectator from the arena floor is 128 feet.

Some other features of the building, which has more than 2 million patrons attend 175 events annually, include two 20-foot wide by 15-foot high TelScreens suspended at each end of the arena; 55 Sony television monitors located throughout the concourse so patrons will not miss anything going on inside the arena; two 100-foot auxiliary scoreboards added in 1988 to the fascia at midcourt of the upper promenade (on both sides)—which also has message boards to keep patrons up-to-date on happenings in the NBA.

There are 12 hotels and 25 restaurants within a 2-mile radius of the building. The Summit is within 40 minutes of Houston's two major airports, Houston Intercontinental and William P. Hobby.

Least Defensive Rebounds at The Summit — 13, New Jersey (Jan. 3, 1979)

MARCH 1991: ROCKETS FINISH 14-1

MARCH 1991: Houston turned up the defensive pressure and came away with not only the best month in franchise history, but one of the best in league history...the Rockets set three franchise records — longest winning streak (13), most wins in one month (14) and best road record for one month (6-1)...the 14-1 mark equals the eighth best record for one month in NBA history (see chart), and since 1973 (the last time a team went undefeated for one month) only six teams have played a minimum of 15 games and lost once...the Rockets out-scored the opposition 108.6-99.1, limiting nine opponents to less than 100 points including the Lakers and Chicago on the road...Houston shot .480 from the field, the opponents .444...the Rockets won the battle of the boards 46.5-44.1...the highlights of the month included road wins vs the Lakers, Chicago, Phoenix and Atlanta...six players averaged 12+ points led by Kenny Smith's 20.8 mark...Otis Thorpe averaged 18.4 points, 10.4 rebounds and shot .618 from the field; Hakeem Olajuwon averaged 17.1 points, 12.1 rebounds and 4 blocks...here's a look at the top monthly records in NBA history:

ROCKETS IN THE COMMUNITY

Each member of the Houston Rockets family is recruited for service at various events, primarily with disabled and disadvantaged children's groups. The Rockets were involved with more than 100 community events last year.

Here are some of the top programs that the community services department will administer in 1992-93:

BASKETBALL FOR THE BLIND

Fourteen complimentary front-row seats are provided for clients of the Lighthouse of Houston. Audio equipment provides the in-house broadcast.

BOOSTER SHOTS

The Rockets mascot Booster makes appearances with the Department of Health to remind parents to get their children immunization shots. Booster also makes hospital and school visits year round.

CORPORATE PARTNERS WITH EDUCATION

There are several initiatives that come under the heading of our "Stay in School" program. One is the adopting of Terrell Alternative Middle School. This second-year program utilizes Rockets' memorabilia as incentives to come to school and participate.

SCHOLARSHIPS

In conjunction with the NBA, the Rockets will award two $1,000 scholarships to students residing within a 75-mile radius of The Summit. Scholarships can be used at any accredited four-year college or two-year community or junior college.

TOYS FOR TOTS

Collecting toys in early December at Rockets games provides Christmas presents for needy kids in the Houston area.

HOUSTON ROCKETS CHARITIES

The Houston Rockets also have established a foundation — Houston Rockets Charities — to serve as the non-profit arm of the organization. The main role of the foundation is to raise funds to be distributed to local charities. Listed below are the two major fundraisers scheduled for the 1992-93 season.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

The largest fundraising effort of the season. All current players and coaches, plus ex-Rocket players participate in this one-day event. This fundraiser will benefit Big Brothers and Sisters of Houston.

TIPOFF LUNCHEON

A luncheon involving all Rockets players and coaches previewing the upcoming season. Texas Special Olympics will be the beneficiary of this event.

NBA STAY IN SCHOOL PROGRAM

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting and improving the quality of life in their communities. On a national level, the NBA is involved in numerous public service initiatives.

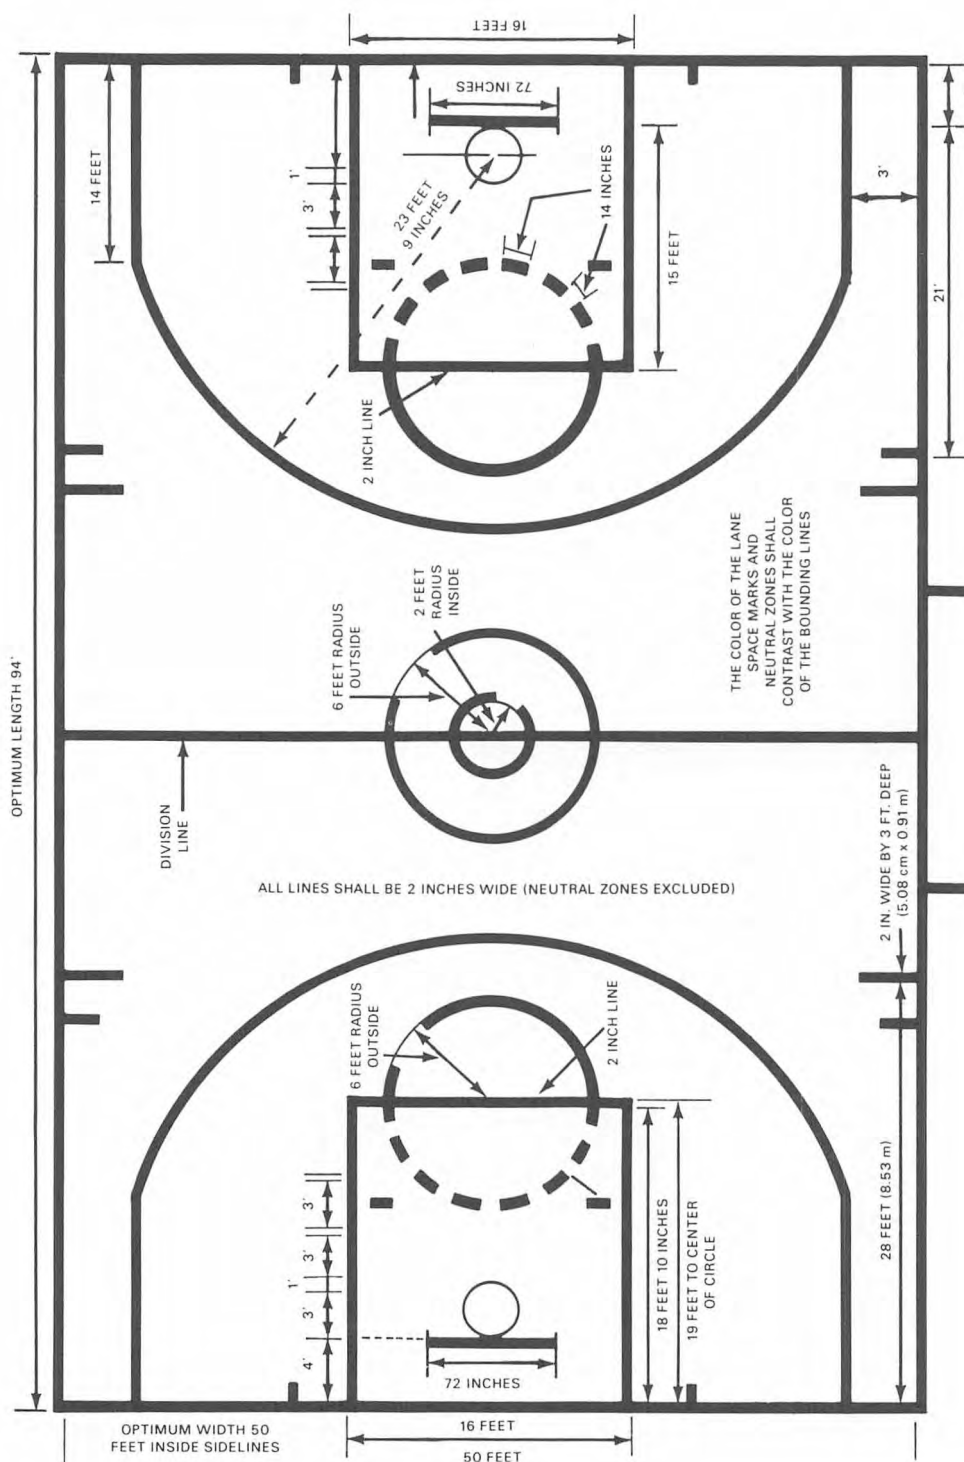

Since 1989, the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association have worked to draw attention to this country's alarming drop-out statistics through the national NBA Stay in School program. Created to urge students to graduate from high school, the Stay in School program uses the popularity and visibility of NBA players and coaches to encourage young people to develop self-esteem, set goals, and dedicate themselves to learning.

Through public service announcements on TV and radio and other awareness-building projects, the NBA and its players also support the work of the Special Olympics, CARE, the National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Operation Prom/Graduation, a program that urges high school students to celebrate an alcohol-free prom and graduation season.

The NBA also produces and airs PSAs saluting the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and celebrating Black History Month each February. During the 1991-92 season, the wives of NBA players and coaches developed a national program to highlight the importance of breast cancer screening for women.

Former NBA great Bob Lanier is chairman for the NBA's Stay in School program.

THANKS FOR MAKING US WHAT WE ARE. NUMBER ONE.

Because of your support, Borden Milk is preferred over any other milk in Houston by a 4-to-1 margin.

Besides our great taste, there are a couple of reasons that's true. For one, we're easy to find - 97% of all grocery stores here carry the Borden line. And we've become something of a tradition. During the 57 years we've been in Houston, 21 dairies have come and gone, but Borden has continued to provide fresh, premium-quality dairy products.

As a result, Borden remains the number-one selling milk in Houston. So drink up.

Borden Hi-Protein Lowfat Milk is proud to be the official milk of the Houston Rockets.
